The story centers on four friends – Jake, Emily, Sam, and Marcus – who, as children, shared a bond rooted in their rural Montana upbringing. Now adults, their lives have diverged: some seeking the solitude of wilderness, others pursuing urban ambitions. When a chance invitation brings them back to their childhood cabin deep in the forest, they believe it's a nostalgic reunion.

However, their idyllic retreat quickly turns sinister. A series of strange occurrences – missing supplies, unsettling sounds, and ominous signs – hint at an unseen threat lurking in the woods. As the group investigates, they discover evidence of illegal activities, possibly involving a local criminal operation. Tensions escalate as secrets surface, and their survival hinges on their ability to trust one another amidst mounting danger.
